

Computer Use Agreement

- This agreement is valid until the expiration of your library card, and will then need to be renewed at that time.
- Non-patron agreements are good for one year.

If you need assistance, please ask the librarian at the Circulation Desk. If you are not familiar with computers or the internet, our staff can give guidance, but we cannot type and enter data for you. This library is not responsible for damages, indirect or direct, arising from a person's use of Internet information resources. Any damage to library equipment will be billed to the patron.

Internet computers may only be used for legal purposes.

Unacceptable uses include, but are not limited to hacking, fraud, accessing illegal or inappropriate sites such as pornography, obscenity, harassment of others, damage to equipment, software or data belonging to the library or others, altering library software or hardware.

Inappropriate usage will result in suspending user privileges.

First time: warning
Second time: no computer use for one week
Third time: no computer use for one month

Costs/Time Limits:

Free use. | Users are allowed sixty (60) minutes per day within library hours. A person may stay longer if no one is waiting.

Children:

Children must be in 6th grade or 11 years old to use computers. Parents or legal guardians are responsible for the use of library resources, including computers, by minors. Any damage to library equipment will be billed to parent/guardian. Filters provide only limited protection. This form must be signed in front of a librarian by the parent or guardian, see back side.

Registration and User Agreement:

- ✓ I have read the policies concerning the use of the Heyworth Public Library District's Internet Computer Use Agreement and agree to abide by the policies.
- ✓ I agree to pay any repair or replacement costs of equipment or software damaged by myself or by minors for whom I am responsible.
- ✓ I understand that copyright laws restrict duplication of copyrighted software, and I will follow all copyright laws.
- ✓ I understand that if I fail to abide by the Heyworth Public Library District's Internet policies, I will lose eligibility for use of this service.
- ✓ I understand and acknowledge that the Internet contains material of a controversial nature including pornography, obscenity, inflammatory, or dangerous material.
- ✓ I understand that Heyworth Public Library District has no control over the Internet and assumes no responsibility for the content, quality, accuracy, currency, or appropriateness of any Internet resources.
